Release Statement.

Dancing, acting and singing is a physical form of expression. On occasion it may be necessary for the teacher to have limited physical contact with the pupil in order to correct and improve ability. My child has no physical restrictions, disabilities or any predisposition to sickness or injury that may be aggravated or adversely affected as a result of his or her participation at TrapDoor Performing Arts School.

Cancellation policy: Fees for term classes and weekly workshops are payable in advance and are offered on a first-come-first-served basis. No refunds will be given.
